

Year 2 – Unit 1 – History – Mary Seacole and Florence Nightingale

Key Vocabulary

compassion		Caring about someone who is sad or hurt and wanting to help them feel better.
Crimean War		A war including Russia, Britain, France and Turkey that happened between 1853-1856 near the Black Sea.
hygiene		Keeping your body and surroundings clean so you stay healthy and don't get sick.
nurse		A person who helps take care of sick or hurt people.
patient		A person who is feeling sick or hurt and needs help from a doctor or a nurse.
source		Something from the past (e.g. a book, photo, object or letter) that helps us to learn about the past.
timeline		A list that shows when important events happened, in the order they took place.

Key People

Mary Seacole	Florence Nightingale

Mary Seacole was a British-Jamaican nurse. She was known for helping soldiers during the Crimean War using herbal remedies.	Florence Nightingale was a British nurse. She was known for improving condition in hospitals for soldiers during the Crimean War.

Timeline of Events

1805	Mary Seacole is born.
1820	Florence Nightingale is born.
1837	Florence Nightingale begins nursing training
1844	Mary Seacole travels to England to learn more about nursing.
1854	Crimean War begins.